

Privacy Policy

Families Changing America, Inc.

This Privacy Policy explains the collection, use, and disclosure of “personal information” by Families Changing America, Inc., through its website. Any “personal information” that Families Changing America, Inc. collects via our website (www.FamiliesChangingAmerica.org) is handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy. As used in this policy, “personal information” means information that would allow a party to identify you, such as, for example, your name, address, telephone number or email address.

Personal information we collect: We collect personal information when you Join Families Changing America as a Partner for Change when you provide us with your personal information such as by sending an email, and when you donate money to us.

What we do with the personal information we collect: We use the personal information you provide when you send us emails or sign up to send you communications about news and events related to Families Changing America, Inc.

When you donate money to Families Changing America, Inc. directly, we use your personal information to process your donation.

Regardless of the method by which you donate to Families Changing America, Inc. we additionally use the personal information you provide for the purpose of contacting you about upcoming news and events relevant to Families Changing America, Inc.. When we contact you for the first time after your donation, we will give you the option to choose not to be contacted in this manner again. When you donate money as part of one of Families Changing America, Inc. fundraising campaigns, your name will be published on our “supporters page” unless you request otherwise.

Non-personal browsing and site usage information that we collect: When you use the Websites, our servers (which may be hosted by a third party service provider) may collect information indirectly and automatically (through, for example, the use of your “IP address”) about your activities while visiting the Websites, including the web pages you view and the times you view them and information about the browser you are using. We do not link browsing information to the personal information you submit to us; we use this browsing information for internal purposes such as to help understand how the Websites are being used and to improve it, and for systems administration purposes. An IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer when you use the Internet. In some cases your IP address stays the same from browser session to browser session; but if you use a consumer Internet access provider, your IP address probably varies from session to session.

The disclosures we may make of personal information: In general, it is not Families Changing America, Inc.'s practice to disclose personal information to third parties. We may share personal information in two instances.

Firstly, Families Changing America, Inc. may share personal information with our contractors and service providers in order to maintain, enhance, or add to the functionality of the Website. Secondly, we may share personal information with third parties such as the government or other entities when required to by law or as required by court order.

The security of personal information collected via the Websites: Families Changing America, Inc. has implemented reasonable measures to protect against unauthorized access to and unlawful interception or processing of personal information that Families Changing America, Inc. stores and controls. However, no website can fully eliminate security risks. Third parties may circumvent our security measures to unlawfully intercept or access transmissions or private communications. We will post a reasonably prominent notice to the Websites if any such security breach occurs.

Questions? If you have questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact us by email at mail@familieschangingamerica.org.

We hope this policy clarifies our procedures regarding your personal information. Families Changing America, Inc. may revise this policy at any time by updating this posting.

Effective Date: August 24, 2007
